

Dear Human,

Create to Elevate Festival

A two-day immersive arts festival designed to deepen your relationship with yourself, unlock your artistic flow, and connect with other creatives, changemakers, and artists around the world! Expect to be challenged, invigorated, and inspired!

Dream Big.

Here at The Human Arts Collective, we believe in forming innovative experiences, collaborations, education that embrace the power of artistic expression and the messiness of the human experience to foster a more connected, imaginative, and empowered world. We strive to build an inclusive network of creative humans who are the future changemakers of the world. Join us - We think you'll fit right in!

Empower ∴ Collaborate ∴ Educate

The Process

Six artists pulled from their own truths and stories to piece together characters sharing space in a brand new story— we devised every stage of the process—writing the script, the storyline, the imagery, the gifts of our artists being seen and heard and amplified. There is something in this film for everyone, showing us what it feels like and means to be human— heading into several genres, emotions, art forms.
